Subject: CASAC, ISAs and charge questions

Hi Jennifer,

We just learned yesterday, through a news release (!!pasted below), that a new CASAC chartered committee has been formed AND that this committee would peer review the PM and Ozone ISA. Recall that the 7-member chartered panel (even previously) did not have the range of expertise to conduct a scientific review of the ISA's which is why panels were formed (for PM, ozone, etc) to augment the expertise. But it looks like per 'back to basics memo' (attached), CASAC chartered will be the only reviewing body:

- 3) We are prepared to brief the Administrator about the PM ISA. I assume IOAA will coordinate scheduling that likely should include OAR?

Please let us know if there is anything else.

Thanks,
Tina
